

NOTE

NeighbOurhoods on Thin IcE – Heritage and Naturally Valued Climate-Sensitive Built Environments

Sigríður Kristjánsdóttir

LbhÍ

L Architecture

Urban design of winter cities for for well-being to attract citizens to be physical active and be more healthy

Northern periphery small settlements in sparsely populated regions in trans-national cooperation between countries Sweden, Finland, Iceland, Greenland and Ireland

Manage Conflicts between natural and cultural heritage and mega-projects that host communities of fly-in-fly-out professionals to find possible solutions to integrate social and cultural aspects of quality of life into sustainable urban planning and design.

Partners: 4 universities, 2 associations
Application to Interreg Northern Periphery

Þátttakendur

- Luleå University of Technology (LTU)
 - LTU Management lead
- Oulu University
- Ulster University
- Iceland Agricultural University (Lbhl)

Umsókn Workpackage List

- WP 1 Management of the NOTE-project LTU
- WP 2 Communication OULU
- WP 3 Mapping and site analysis peoples views OULU
- WP 4 ICT -based Interaction Platform and tools UU
- WP 5 Management Supporting Framework LTU
- WP 6 Testing the platform and framework Lbhl

NOTE

NeighbOurhoods on Thin IcE – Heritage and Naturally Valued Climate-Sensitive Built Environments

Sigríður Kristjánsdóttir

LbhÍ

